Books Like Me

Giving visibility and representation to all our readers

Collins Big Cat aims to include characters from a range of ethnic and social backgrounds, tell stories about people with differing abilities and profile positive female role models. This boosts self-esteem and engagement for all children and promotes acceptance and kinship. By reading fiction and non-fiction that represents us all, children will develop a greater understanding of the world and of themselves.

How does Big Cat reflect a diverse readership?

Our authors and illustrators

Big Cat is proud to work with brilliant authors and illustrators. Authors are thoughtfully paired with illustrators to ensure authentic representation.

Our partners

Big Cat works with a range of charities and organisations for expert perspectives on a range of themes.

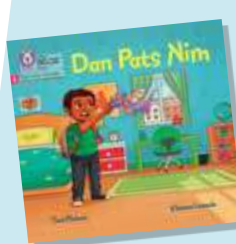

"It's so lovely for our limb different children to see themselves represented in a book and doing the same things as all the other children there. We work hard to raise awareness of limb difference and we are grateful to Collins for helping us to normalise what it's like to live with a limb difference." "

JANE HEWITT, TRUSTEE OF THE LIMBBO FOUNDATION

Stories that reflect the real world

Chapter 2

When Tara opened her eyes, she was in a laboratory surrounded by robots. There were robot hands, robot arms and robot legs.
Oh! A robot on wheels bumped into her legs.
WOAH! Tara ducked as a robot with propellers swerved around her head.

"Sorry!" said the boy controlling it. "You appeared right in its flight path!"
A girl scooped up the robot by Tara's feet. "That's Ortez – he's a robotics engineer. He designed all these machines," she explained.
"And that's Ayesha," smiled Ortez. "She teaches the robots how to learn from their surroundings and from their mistakes. It's called artificial intelligence or AI."
The robots are probably cleverer than I am, thought Tara.

Enable learners to connect knowledge and build conceptual understanding

Humpbacks are known as "acrobats of the sea" because they leap out of the water. This is called breaching. Humpbacks breach to impress other whales and remove little creatures like barnacles and sea lice from their bodies.

Fact

Each humpback has different white, grey and black patterns under its tail.

Arabic Readers

Discover an inspiring series of graded readers for children learning to read in Arabic!

Collins
BIG CAT

السلسلة العربية للقراءة الموجهة

- Carefully structured to align with the learning progression of Arabic in schools and nurseries, the series is suitable for native speakers and learners of Arabic as a foreign language
- The 109 readers across 16 levels allow children to build their reading knowledge step by step and ensure that there is a book suitable for every child and every level

- A mix of fiction and non-fiction brought to life by beautiful illustrations
- Each book includes an 'ideas for reading' section for teachers and parents to check children's understanding
- A full Teacher's Guide includes lesson plans, classroom ideas and assessment support

Sample of Mecca and Medina, Level 10 - Non-fiction

Sample of The Moon, the Traveller's Friend, Level 14 - Fiction

LEVEL CHART

Level	Level Description
1	Level 1 books introduce children to the letters of the Arabic alphabet using bright and engaging illustrations.
2	Level 2 books introduce simple words for children to read based on key syllables with long vowels.
3	Level 3 books introduce the concept of the 'story', and include simple phonic sounds and very high-frequency words with simple spellings.
4	Level 4 books are for children who are ready to start to read stories with simple single words or non-verbal sentences with 2 or 3 short words, and with total support through illustrations and extensive use of repetition. Double spacing is used between words to ensure children see where each new word in a sentence begins and ends, with the focus on reading core words.
5	Level 5 books are for children who are ready to read stories with more challenging word patterns or non-verbal sentences with 2 or 3 words, and with total support through illustrations and extensive use of repetition. Double spacing is used between words to ensure children see where each new word in a sentence begins and ends to ensure the focus remains on reading core words.
6	Level 6 books provide an advance on level 5. Sentences are still highly repetitive but slightly longer, with simple story development supported by illustrations. Double spacing is used between words to ensure children see where each new word in a sentence begins and ends. Although the focus at level 6 remains on reading the core words, the concept of reading hamzat al-wasl and sun letters correctly is introduced in non-verbal sentences of up to 4-5 words.
7	Level 7 books include storylines with more episodes in time sequence, and may include imaginary happenings in the context of familiar experiences. There is still repetition but more variation in pattern and more new words are introduced than in lower levels. Non-fiction titles bring in simple non-fiction tools, such as diagrams, labels and captions. Additional vowel marks that encourage the flow of pronunciation are introduced at this level. Verbal sentences of up to 8-10 words with repeating and accessible actions appear at this level. Double spacing is used between words to ensure children see where each new word in a sentence begins and ends.
8	Level 8 books are becoming more complex, although still strongly patterned but to a lesser extent than level 7. Although the focus remains on vowel marking to aid the flow of reading with verbal sentences of up to 8-10 words, level 8 books have more events and episodes, fewer repeated patterns, and more complex vocabulary. Non-fiction titles use non-fiction tools – including signs, labels, captions and diagrams – where necessary. Double spacing is used between words to ensure children see where each new word in a sentence begins and ends.
9	Level 9 books are similar in complexity to level 8, with strong patterns and similar events and episodes. Non-fiction titles use non-fiction tools – including signs, labels, captions and diagrams – where necessary. Single-word spacing is used from level 9 upwards. In addition, very high-frequency words appear consistently without vowel markings. These features will help the students get used to the traditional norms of printed Arabic.
10	Level 10 books include characters that express emotions and stories with more events. Non-fiction titles introduce terms that might be new to many children. Level 10 books continue to use single spacing and more high-frequency words appear without vowel markings to help the students get used to the traditional norms of printed Arabic.
11	Level 11 books provide more literary language, more complex sentence structures and less support from illustrations. Characters are more varied, with action sustained over several pages. Non-fiction titles include glossaries where necessary. Sentences are still short for better understanding. However, grammatical vowel endings are more evident to encourage fluent reading and to provide familiarity with some higher-level features of written Arabic.
12	Level 12 books feature greater use of literary language and more unusual and challenging vocabulary. Play scripts also feature from Level 12. Non-fiction titles contain longer, more formal sentences and a wide range of unfamiliar terms. Sentences become longer with greater use of conjunctions and relative clauses. Grammatical vowel endings are more evident to encourage fluent reading and to provide familiarity with some higher-level features of written Arabic.
13	Level 13 books feature longer and more complex sentence structures. Sentences make use of a wide range of stylistic features which reflect progression in the teaching of Arabic grammar. Stories may also contain more literary, metaphorical language, including similes and other figurative language to help the reader create mental images, plus exaggeration for dramatic or humorous effect. Non-fiction titles contain longer, more formal sentences and a broader range of unfamiliar terms.
14	Level 14 books build on level 13 by offering stories with more complex plots and with a greater number of chapters to encourage the development of reading stamina. Non-fiction texts use complex vocabulary and deal with challenging global themes. The style of language further reflects progression in the teaching of Arabic grammar, while still using largely familiar vocabulary and simplified concepts.
15	Level 15 books provide more complex plots and longer chapters to help develop reading stamina and to help develop sustained engagement with texts. Level 15 books use a wide range of language structures to reflect progression in the teaching of Arabic grammar. Paragraphs and other text devices become more evident in these longer books.
16	Level 16 books offer more complex, underlying themes that give opportunities for children to understand causes and points of view. A wide range of language structures is used to reflect progression in the teaching of Arabic grammar, while still retaining the core aim of encouraging a love of reading through Arabic stories and texts.

Grapheme Cards support teaching and reviewing of grapheme-phoneme correspondences.

Picture Cards provide visual prompts for practising the phonemes during the phonics lesson.

Word Cards and Tricky Word Cards for each Phase provide children with the opportunity to practise reading at the right level and develop their fluency.

Large and small cards available for Reception and Year 1!

Now available as ready-to-use cards organised by Phase for ease of use

NEW Learn at Home Phonics Flashcards for parents to support phonics learning at home. Includes an advice card with tips for practising letter sounds.

Lesson Prompt Cards for each year group support teachers with step-by-step instructions and tips for each lesson.

NEW Review Word Cards Review and practise previously taught sounds throughout the programme. Now available as ready-to-use cards organised in teaching order for ease of use.

Teach and practise: Phase 3 and 4 read new words Teach: New word <ul style="list-style-type: none"> For each word: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask the children to sound-talk each grapheme and then blend to read the word aloud. Point to each grapheme and then sweep beneath the word to signal blending. Read the word together. Give a contextualising sentence or definition for the word, if needed. Use the example definitions and sentences on the weekly grid, if needed. Quick review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shuffle the cards. Tell the children to read the words on the cards without sounding out. Show each card and sweep beneath the word to signal blending. Ensure there is enough time for the children to read each word. Repeat. 	Notes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use the sound button side of the word cards because these are new words for the children. Use minimal language to ensure the children can focus on the reading of the words. Pointing to the diagraphs should be tricky. When reading the words, ensure lots of practice by asking all the children, then individuals/front of children, and then all the children again, to read the words. Watch the children carefully to ensure they are all blending in their heads. (Children will often mouth the sounds to themselves at this stage.) Encourage the children to indicate – with a silent gesture (e.g. nodding their head, thumbs up) – when they are ready to blend. Reception Terms: Spr1, 2; Sum 1, 2
Teach and practise: Read a tricky word <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Show the tricky word on a card. Read the decodable parts of the word. Point to the 'tricky bit' and tell the children the sound that this grapheme makes. Model reading the word. Ask the children to read the word a few times independently. 	Notes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once children learn more GPCs, words that were previously tricky are shown in red (in brackets) in the weekly grid. Reception Terms: Spr1, 2; Sum 1, 2

SEND Programme Classroom Resources

Available
now!

Learning to read matters for every child or young person, regardless of their starting points or learning difficulties. This is why Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised offers a number of pathways, enabling schools to create a suitable route to reading for every child.

Little Wandle SEND is a complete programme that mirrors the main Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised phonics programme but with adaptations and support in place that make it possible for schools, Special Schools and providers to meet the needs of all their learners. It has been created to help children learn to read with the right level of challenge for each child and using the graduated approach if needed.

Little Wandle SEND has been trialled in Special Schools, bases and alternative provision with children who have a wide range of learning and physical disabilities so that we can be sure that it provides the support needed to develop language alongside teaching word reading.

NEW Large Sensory Grapheme Cards

Embossed to give sensory feedback. These robust cards can be used with individuals, groups of children, or with the whole class.

NEW Illustrated Grapheme Cards

Cards featuring 40 core Phase 5 graphemes, chosen for the Little Wandle SEND programme. Developed with advice from Special Schools and illustrated to aid understanding and memory.

NEW Large Word Cards

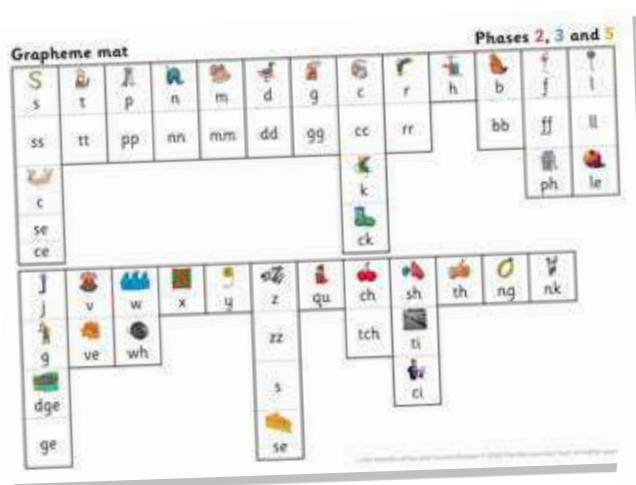

A complete set of enlarged word cards and tricky word cards for the Little Wandle SEND programme. Provides children with the opportunity to practise reading words at their level and develop fluency.

Contains 564 words and tricky words, supplied as individual cards and organised by Phase for ease of use.

NEW Grapheme Mats

A pack of 10 double-sided and laminated A3 grapheme mats that provide a quick reference for all the graphemes taught in the SEND programme at Phases 2, 3 and 5.

NEW SEND Programme Teacher's Guide

Contains information and advice for delivering the Little Wandle SEND programme, including lesson templates and Prompt cards for all aspects of teaching reading using the graduated approach. It also includes advice on:

- the statutory guidance for teaching reading to children with SEND
- choosing the correct pathway for each child
- using the Little Wandle resources and books

Phonics

Support all pupils to practise reading with 204 decodable books

Including 84 new books available now!

for Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised

- Each book is matched perfectly to the Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised progression and covers Foundations for Phonics through to Phase 5
- Supports the teaching of decoding, prosody and comprehension
- Our diverse range of authors and illustrators write truly inclusive books where every child can see themselves represented

Before reading

Practising phonics: Phase 3

- Read the book three times over three reading practice sessions.
- Focus on a different aspect of reading each time: decoding, prosody and comprehension.
- Download the word cards to accompany this book at: collins.co.uk/BigCatLittleWandleL&SRevised

Revisit and review: Pre-read

- Before reading the book, ask the children to read the GPCs, words and tricky words. Encourage them to read the words fluently.

Reading at home

This book has been chosen for your child to read at home. They should be able to read it without your help. Listen to your child read. Celebrate their success and talk about the book together. If they can't read a word, read it to them. You can find out more about how to support your child to learn to read at www.littlewandlelettersandsounds.org.uk

Practise and apply: Read the book

- Now ask the children to read the book.
- Tap-in and listen to each child read.

Focus phonemes and tricky words are listed on the inside front cover of every book so that they can be practised before the reading session

Tricky words are introduced in line with the Phase and are kept to a minimum

Nipper and Gull pick up litter.

Review: After reading

Use your assessment from hearing the children read to choose any GPCs, words or tricky words that need additional practice.

Read 1: Decoding

- Focus on the words with long vowels on pages 6 and 7. Ask the children which words have the /e:/ sound (sees, Eek), which has the long /er/ sound (Nipper) and which has the long /ar/ sound. (sharp)
- Challenge the children to find the word with the short /oo/ sound. (look) Ask the children to read the words aloud: pool boot look too

Read 2: Prosody

- Choose two double page spreads and model reading with expression to the children. Ask the children to have a go at reading the same pages with expression.
- Show the children how you read sentences with exclamation marks with extra emphasis and enthusiasm.

Read 3: Comprehension

- Turn to pages 14 and 15 and ask the children if this shows the pool at the beginning or end of the story. Can the children remember what happened in the story and how the pool changed? Encourage them to retell the story.
- For every question ask the children how they know the answer. Ask:
 - On pages 2 to 3, who isn't very happy, and why? (Nipper, because there is too much litter in her rock pool)
 - On page 7, what is the sharp thing? (Gull's beak)
 - On pages 8 to 9, why is Gull harmless? (e.g. he doesn't want to hurt Nipper, he has just brought a bucket to help)
 - What sort of book is this – a story or non-fiction? Why do you think this? (e.g. a story because it has illustrations and not photos, a story because the animals are talking)

Guidance that matches the Little Wandle three read structure to support your teaching

Pages from Nipper and Gull, Phase 3

NEW Blending practice for struggling readers

- 10 new books specifically designed to support blending practice
- Bridges the word count gap between Foundations for Phonics and Phase 2

Follows a find and confirm structure to support comprehension

Includes sound buttons to support blending

Features repetition to aid fluent reading

The words and language used stretch understanding

NEW Stretch and challenge books

- 28 new books introduced at the end of Phase 4 to consolidate reading stamina before Phase 5 and then at the end of Phase 5 before moving on to non-phonics books

Includes more complex themes and topics to challenge comprehension

The one with blue scales waddled onto Jen's wrist. "It's so cute," she said, gently clutching the dinosaur. Then they heard a bellowing and the earth shook. Jake froze on the spot. "Some creature is stalking us!"

10

Jake heard a rustle in the canopy above and stared up at a huge head bristling with teeth. The powerful dinosaur wrenched a palm tree from the earth with its jaws.

11

Features longer word counts

More books are available for pupils aged 7+ who need further support, see pages 30-32.

Integrate Phonics for Letters and Sounds readers into your phonics teaching

Phonics Teacher Handbooks

- Ensure every pupil meets age-related expectations with targeted lesson plans that guide practice of reading comprehension strategies and vocabulary development
- Develop fluency and correct pronunciation from the start using the advice for demonstration and modelling

Lessons support the reading of every book in a phonics reading session

It is Hidden

This is a non-fiction book that explores the amazing ways animals camouflage themselves.

Book band: Red B

Practising phonics Phase 3

Warm up: Double letters

- Write these words on cards: button, hidden, sudden, puppet.
- Show children a card: button.
- Tell children that the double letters tt make one sound: /t/.
- Draw a dot beneath each sound and a line beneath the double letters tt. Remind children that this shows two letters are making one sound.
- Ask children to read each sound and blend the word. Ensure they understand what the word means.
- Repeat for the other words.

Practise the sounds /ee/ /oo/ /or/ /oa/ /ar/ /igh/ /oo/ /er/ /ow/, /d/, /t/

Review: /th/ /sh/

- Introduce the new sounds to practise the Phase 3 sounds in this book.

Use It is Hidden: Resource sheet 1 to introduce the focus sounds: /oo/ and /ai/. Encourage children to read the phrase aloud to help them remember the sound each grapheme makes and then say the sound as they trace the letters.

Decoding practice

- Practise reading the words on the front page of the book.
- Ask children to complete the final activity on It is Hidden: Resource sheet 1. Tell them to read each word, then dot and dash it, and finally match it to the correct picture.

Children read

- Tell children to read the book aloud. Encourage them to sound out the words and explore the pictures.
- Listen to children as they read.
- When children have finished reading, ask them to talk with their partner to complete the activity on pages 14–15.

children to words that give more information about where things are, such as: at, on, by and so on.

- Use these prepositions to describe where objects are in the classroom: The light switch is by the door.
- Ask children to use the prepositions on It is Hidden: Resource sheet 2 to describe where the objects are.

Extending vocabulary

- Tell children that the word camouflaged means hidden by looking like your surroundings. Ask children to look at the hidden animals and talk about how they are camouflaged. Take feedback.
- Help children use the word camouflage in context: The toad is camouflaged to look like a leaf. It is the same colour as the forest floor. It is hard to see.
- Ask children to look at the camouflaged animal on It is Hidden: Resource sheet 2 and describe to their partner how it is camouflaged. Tell them to write some words to label how the animal is hidden.

After reading

Developing fluency

- Read the book aloud and ask children to follow in their books.
- Tell children to join in with you as you read.
- Hesitate as you read so children can take over reading the next word.
- Tell children what you are thinking as you read so they can see how you make links, for example: When I read 'The toad is hidden at the bottom', the word 'bottom' tells me where to look on the page to find the toad.
- Read the book with expression and ask children to have a go at reading with expression to a partner.

Comprehension

- Ask children to talk to their partner about how they found each animal in the book. What clues did they look for? Take feedback.
- Talk about the words that describe where you need to look on the page to find each animal. Direct

Ideas for reading

Written by Clare Dowdall, PhD
Lecturer and Primary Literacy Consultant

Reading objectives:

- discuss understanding and explain the meaning of words in context
- ask questions to improve understanding
- retrieve and record information from non-fiction

Spoken language objectives:

- ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge

Curriculum links: History – the Iron Age; Geography – locational knowledge

Resources: materials for model making; art materials for jewellery design; ICT for research and presentation

Build a context for reading

- Ask children to look at the front cover and describe what they can see. Discuss who they think the Celts were, and what they know about them.
- Turn to the blurb. Read it aloud to the group and compare the information given to the children's ideas. Check that children understand the word "migrated".
- Ask children to imagine what Britain was like 2,000 years ago. Guide their thinking by asking questions: What were homes made from? What did people eat? What was the environment like? How did people travel?

Understand and apply reading strategies

- Read pp2–3 as a group. Discuss the information and help children to make sense of the map. Identify Italy and Greece in relation to Britain and relate this to the information given.

Turn to the contents page. Ask children to select a topic to read about and feed back to the rest of the group. Ask children to use a spider chart to record key information and vocabulary. Model how to do this if necessary.

Ask children to read their section and collect key facts for sharing.

Develop reading and language comprehension

- Turn to pp46–47. Ask children to use the images provided to describe the how the Iron Age Celts lived.
- Ask children to report back about their selected topic. Encourage them to introduce new language and explain the meaning of technical vocabulary.
- As a group, help children to raise questions for further research based on what is already known from reading, e.g. What did people sleep on in the round houses? How were the homes made waterproof? Lead a discussion about what children think was good and what wasn't so good about Celtic lifestyles, e.g. warring between tribes, equal rights for women and men. Help children to refer back to the relevant sections of the book for information by skimming and scanning to locate ideas.

Support a creative response

- Build a model of a Celtic hill fort or Crannog, or draw a picture of a settlement.
- Use ICT to research Boudicca's battles against the Romans and what led to her defeat. Create a presentation in role as Boudicca.
- Design Celtic style jewellery or make Celtic clay pots and decorate them using Celtic designs.

The Reader Response page encourages pupils to respond and explore a book in different ways helping to improve their inference and deduction skills

Assess comprehension using a range of strategies including discussion, debate and drama outlined in a bespoke reading session plan written by a literacy expert in the back of every Collins Big Cat book

From phonics to fluency, Collins Big Cat provides complete support for primary reading with over 1000 books banded from Lilac to Pearl. Find out more about the books available in each band on the following pages.

Focus word	Brief explanation	Example sentence	Definition
stared	looked hard	I stared at the head teacher because he was doing car-fettles in the playground.	If you stare at something, you look at it for a long time.
yelled	shouted loudly	I yelled so that you could all hear me.	If you yell, you speak really loudly.
grinned	smiled	We all grinned when we heard a funny joke.	When someone gives their smile broadly.
invisible	can't be seen	It was so foggy that my house was invisible.	Something is invisible, you can't see it.
shining	brings and glowing	The sun is shining through the windows.	If something is shining, it gives off a bright light.

Tune in

Discuss children's responses to the story The Alien on the 99th Floor asking them to refer to their Book Talk resource sheet to support the discussion. Encourage children to support their responses with reasoning and by referring to the story.

The children they are going to look at some of the words the author used in Chapter 3. Ask children to write the author used in Chapter 3. Ask children to turn to Chapter 3 on page 17 and follow as you read.

Read the chapter aloud to children, modelling how to use the dictionary and pronunciation to read with to use the dictionary and pronunciation to read with to use the dictionary and pronunciation to read with.

Heads together

Ask children to work with their Reading Partners. Give each pair a copy of Resource sheet: Vocabulary boost for The Alien on the 99th Floor, explaining to the child they should link each focus word to one of the items underneath the table, and write their reason for linking the two words. For example, 'invisible' links with 'not because you can't see it'.

Wrap up

Discuss the links children have made, asking the class to explain their thinking. Monitor children's understanding of the focus words. Ask the group to choose one of the words as their word of the week. Challenge them to use the word as often as they can, both at school and at home.

Assess Fluency in Reading

Ideal resource to ensure your pupils are on track with their reading when they return to school

Reception to Year 6

Assess pupils' speed, accuracy, expression and understanding (their reading fluency) with 60 ready-to-use assessment sheets mapped against age-related expectations.

- Identify gaps in your pupils' reading attainment so they can be addressed
- Measure and record pupil progress in fluency
- Match pupils to a reading book at the right level

How does the assessment work?

- A child reads from a levelled text
- Record the number of Words read Per Minute (WPM)
- Errors are recorded and subtracted from the total number of words read to give the Words Correct Per Minute (WCPM)
- WCPM are divided by the WPM and multiplied by 100, to give an accuracy percentage

Big Cat Roman Life in Britain Activity Sheet
Roman Roads in Britain
 Can you draw in the routes of the well known Roman roads that criss-crossed Britain around 100CE and are still part of today's road network?
 1/ Choose three different coloured pencils.
 2/ Using a different colour for each road, draw in these routes:
 Roman road 1 Walling Rowet - Power - Dover / Canterbury / London / High Cross / Chester
 Roman road 2 Fosse Way - Irlton - Exeter / Cirencester / High Cross / Lincoln
 Roman road 3 Ermine Street - Irlton - London / Lincoln / York
 3/ Create a key to indicate which colour represents which Roman road.
 4/ At which point did two roads cross?
Hadrian's Wall:
 In 127CE Emperor Hadrian ordered a wall to be built across Britain to stop Barbarians from the north attacking and raiding Roman settlers. The wall started at Solway Firth and went eastwards towards the sea.
 5/ Create a wall symbol and draw it on the map to show where Hadrian's Wall was built across the country.
 6/ Find the name of the place where the wall finished on the western side and write it in.
 7/ Add the wall symbol to the key.

Cross-curricular Resources

Cover the Programme of Study for English, Science, History and Geography through cross-curricular lesson plans and worksheets to accompany the latest non-fiction books.

Join Tara and Dani Binns on their exciting, fast-paced adventures as they explore different careers

When Tara Binns opens up her dressing up box something exciting happens...

Inside the box are clothes, uniforms, shoes and hats...an outfit for every job you can think of. Which job will the box choose for them?

Chapter 1

Dani Binns found the old toy box in the spare bedroom. Her big sister Tara had suggested choosing a toy from it. Every time Dani picked one, it sent her off to try out a job ... and have an exciting adventure. What toy shall I choose? she thought, looking inside.

Hmm ... a ruler?

As she held the ruler, her hand tingled ... then her arm ... then her whole body. What job would I need a ruler for? she wondered, as she felt herself spinning away through space and time ...

The books broaden horizons and promote the value of gender parity in the working world

Chapter 6

"Look!" shouted Tara, pointing at the robot. "The claw of that robot has brake fluid on it. I bet that robot is splitting the brake pipe!"

Ayesha nodded. "Looks that way. We'll get an engineer to the production line to fix the robot as fast as possible."

Ayesha went to talk to the foreman about the robot.

Tara heard one of the engineers tell another to tow away the faulty car.

"Take it to the crash test area. The other three cars with faulty brakes are there already. We'll keep them safe until their brakes can be fixed. There aren't any more crash tests today, so they won't be a danger to anyone."

Tara was horrified. Ortez! He'd gone to fetch one of those faulty cars. He was about to drive a car with no brakes!

Inspiring stories from Black history

"Roll double six or double three, let's learn about your history."

Join Aniyah, EJ and Olivia as they play their Ludi board game and are transported on action-packed adventures back in time, helping real people from history and solving exciting mysteries along the way.

Written and illustrated by Nadine Cowan, this series of books takes the reader into stories from Black history and explores the lives of inspirational people such as John Blanke, the Royal Trumpeter, to Henry VIII and Claudia Jones, who organised Britain's first Caribbean carnival.

A foghorn sounded in the distance.
"Let's follow everyone else," Aniyah said.
As they followed the crowd, a huge ship with the words Empire Windrush London came into view.
EJ's face lit up. "Wow! We're going on a ship!"

Contemporary fairy tales with a twist!

Available from April 2023

These modern fairy tales for children aged 7–11 deliberately challenge the traditional fairy tale conventions of gender, ethnicity and agency. They complement children's exploration of the genre, help them to challenge embedded and outdated world views, and support their increasing development as sophisticated readers.

Leading children's authors have provided their own twists on familiar fairy tales to bring them up to date, reimagining characters, plot lines and settings so that girls rescue themselves, stepmothers aren't always evil and sometimes being the handsome prince isn't all it seems.

Pages from Adam
and Little Red, Topaz

1 New job

Adam was proud and excited. It was his first day at his new summer job. He'd been told to chop down trees for firewood, on the far side of the forest by the loch.

As he walked up the path towards the tree line, he made sure that his axe was securely strapped to his back, his mobile phone was tucked in his pocket and that he had the lunchbox his dad had packed for him.

The forest was dark, oddly cold and silent. It felt different from previous visits when it had been full of sunshine and birdsong.

Adam had grown up hearing fairy tales about the odd things that happened in magical forests. He shivered.

Of course, he knew that fairy tales weren't real, but he was worried about encountering a creature the stories often featured – a hungry wolf.
